

Rio Vista Golf Course Buffer Planting

One of the first of the Niagara Restoration Council's buffer planting projects, a section of Frenchmans Creek was planted with riparian vegetation along this golf course property. This has greatly increased the amount of vegetation cover in many demonstrative plots adjacent to the creek!

Before Restoration

After Restoration